

Marine Cargo

Our marine cargo department is the market leader in the placement and servicing of global cargo programmes, providing complete brokerage, administrative and claims services to meet your insurance requirements. Through understanding your exposure and risk management philosophy, we offer innovative risk solutions by selecting the best of our brokerage, administrative, recovery and claims expertise to satisfy our client's insurance requirements.

In response to our creativity, underwriters are willing to broaden contracts to include such risks as marine business interruption, cradle-to-grave stock-throughput and satellite launch and equipment installation coverages.

Our marine cargo team provides its unique client base with state-of-the-market programmes in the primary areas of:

- Stock throughput;
- Cargo owner's liability;
- Delay in start-up (DSU); and
- RECLAIM consulting services.

By creating new market combinations and broadening forms of established coverages, we are fusing the time-honoured flexibility of the marine market with aggressive pricing.

Combining current technology with the broadest insuring conditions available in today's marketplace, we can offer shippers unique custom-made coverage and claims services at competitive rates.

A typical package can include:

- Electronic reporting and billing;
- Computer-generated customised loss control reports;
- Broad insuring conditions; and
- Competitive pricing from the world's strongest cargo markets.

We have established specialty resources to concentrate on industries and areas of risk with distinctive requirements. These professionals can be quickly summoned as needed to address client issues requiring specialist attention.

Marsh's cargo (physical loss) services include:

- Covering all goods and merchandise;
- Automatic setup on the first complete online account management system dedicated to marine cargo—www.marshcargo.com;
- Automatic access (24/7) to all transit-related documents; and
- Certificate issuance, resource library, claims management and risk management reports, among other benefits.

As our local and specialist professionals around the world work together, they exemplify the teamwork that is a hallmark of Marsh's approach to delivering client solutions to risk issues.
